

As an educator, I am outraged at the misuse of local television to serve partisan interests a scant two weeks before the election.

Sinclair Broadcasting's attempt to use public airwaves free of charge to so blatantly undermine the public interest and right to free speech is utterly appalling.

As the FCC, you have a responsibility to ensure freedom of the press and our right to access information is protected.

Please do something.

Thank you,
Alison George